Welcome to your Amazon journey

Empowering you to business success

Hello

Welcome to the AX10 Mastermind Program!

I'm delighted you've chosen to join us for this adventure.

This email contains everything you need to know to get started and who to contact if we've missed anything, or if you have any questions.

YOUR GROUP CALLS START ON:

 Jan 22, 2020

 11:00am NZDT

There will be 10 LIVE group coaching calls for you to attend. These are the building blocks that will lead you through a complete process to fast track your way to your first or subsequent products. Each call has a particular topic.

If, for some reason you are not able to make your call time, it will be recorded and loaded to your facebook group page.

You will have access to all the online training now so you can get started with that too!

Please email Christine your product ideas to look over before the call. She will choose several to go over during the call. The criteria will be the things most likely to illustrate the concept of product selection so you all learn it inside out. Not all products submitted will be reviewed, Christine will choose the ones that you will learn the most from, and remember that you have your usual coach, if she doesn't specifically review yours.

QUESTIONS? Need help with anything?

Most of you will already know Christine, she is available for any technical questions, as well as Virginie, who is my chief operating fairy. Feel free to contact her for any course materials you need, general questions about coaching... pretty much everything day to day while you're working with us.

Please make sure all requests go through either Christine or Virginie and not directly to me.

You can email them at support@aspiringentrepreneurs.com

We are delighted to assist you through this coaching!

Sophie
